A unique opportunity to own a piece of paradise at Selva Triangle, nestled in the heart of nature, offering unobstructed views of the iconic Whale's Tail of Marino Ballena Park.

This 10 premier home development invites you to indulge in the beauty of nature in a while enjoying the comforts and amenities of a world-class hotel.

Our meticulously designed bungalows, imported from Bali, seamlessly blend luxury with traditional charm.

"The most biologically intense place on Earth." That's how National Geographic magazine described Costa Rica's Osa Peninsula, an isolated promontory surrounded by the Pacific that is home to 5% of the world's biodiversity.
